As Temple Bar sank from view near La Push, Wash.

Treacherous rocks near La Push, Wash., play havoc with the British steamship Temple Bar, laden with scrap iron for Japan, and the ship goes down. The crew of 36 Englishmen and Arabs went over the side and were rescued in lifeboats by a passing ship.

Mrs. Emma Mathews' Suit
Charges $3,800 Spent
In Gambling

C. S. Chisholm, operator of an E. State st. news stand, and Mrs. Elizabeth I. King, L. W. King and Mrs. Russell Lawson, owners of the building where the store is situated, were named jointly as defendants in a suit filed in common pleas court this morning by Mrs. Emma Mathews, also of Salem.

The plaintiff, mother of Carl Mathews, former state examiner who was before the grand jury recently on a bad check count, charges Chisholm with keeping a place where gambling is permitted, specifically between Jan. 1, 1937, and Oct. 1, 1938, when her son expended $3,800 on such schemes which Chisholm permitted in his place.

She says her son is her sole support and charges that the defendant is indebted to her in the amount of $4,800, including $1,000 exemplary damages. She asks judgment in the amount of $4,800.

Mrs. Mathews requests that the judgment be decided by the court as a lien upon the property and that the same be sold to satisfy the lien and costs.

Carl Mathews, who lost his state job following his arrest at Salem on a charge of passing a worthless check, waived a jury trial after the grand jury had returned an indictment against him and Judge W. F. Lones found him not guilty.

Data On Veterans'
Graves Are Sought

LISBON, April 11.—Glenn Harris of Salem, supervisor of the veteran's grave registration project in Columbiana county, is seeking the aid and co-operation of relatives of deceased veterans in an effort to locate and have all graves of veterans of all wars marked by Memorial day in order that they might be decorated. Relatives are asked to contact the grave registration office.

The project, which originally employed 60 men when it was begun last July, has now been cut to 11 men as the work of checking against the 31 wars and expeditionary forces of United States for veterans buried in this county, becomes more centralized.

To date, graves of 3,390 veterans have been located in 118 cemeteries in the county some of the graves dating back to 1800. Two of the soldiers fought with Napoleon at Waterloo, but the majority of the graves are those of veterans of the Civil war. In compiling this information, it was necessary for the men employed on the grave registration project to re-survey and map 94 out of the 118 cemeteries, as maps were not available and little information was available.

WAGNER UPHOLDS
HIS LABOR ACT

Challenges Opponents To Prove Where Changes
Would Benefit

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 11.—Senator Wagner (D., N. Y.) challenged advocates of a revised Labor Relations Act today to prove that their suggestions would help the operation of the law and not destroy it.

"Any diminution of its effectiveness would be a national evil," Wagner told the senate labor committee. "Its mutilation would be a national calamity."

Willing to Meet Changes
As the committee took up the controversial question of modifying the act, Wagner agreed that if the need for alterations were shown, he would introduce amendments or support those of other senators. He said repeatedly, however, that the basic principles of the act were sound.

He said he would support proposals to let employers petition for elections to ascertain which bargaining agency should represent their workers, but contended that a ruling of the labor board and not the act itself prevented such petitions.

A comprehensive series of amendments has been proposed by the AFL as an aftermath of controversies between its craft unions and the industrial unions of the CIO. The AFL also would restrict powers of the labor board to invalidate existing union contracts.

FATALLY HURT

ALLIANCE, April 11.—Joint verdict of Stark and Mahoning county coroners was awaited today in the case of Joan Serck, 14-year-old East Alliance girl, who died in City hospital at 9 p. m. Monday.

She was struck a glancing blow by the skidding car of Glenn Flawers of Sebring, on the Alliance-Sebring road Saturday afternoon.

PIONEER DIES
AT COLUMBIANA

Mrs. Salome Beard Esterly, 83, Succumbs; Funeral Wednesday

COLUMBIANA, April 11.—Mrs. Salome Beard Esterly, 83, pioneer resident of Columbiana, widow of David Esterly, died at 5:30 a. m. today at her home on South Main st., following three weeks' illness.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Beard, she was born here Feb. 18, 1856. She was married to David Esterly in Youngstown in 1887. Her husband, who died in 1896, was a pioneer resident of Columbiana, a merchant here for a number of years and postmaster for 23 years.

Mrs. Beard became a member of the Methodist church when very young and had been active in church work for many years. Her husband was one of the founders of the Columbiana church and was prominent in its affairs during his life.

Surviving are three step-children, Mrs. Homer Ballard of Lakewood, Robert E. Esterly of Minneapolis, Minn., and Harry E. Esterly of Los Angeles.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday at the Fry funeral home, in charge of Rev. Rupert of Youngstown, former Columbiana pastor.

Burial will be in the family plot in Columbiana cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 7 to 9 p. m. Wednesday.

FINE OF $2,500
IS HANDED OUT

Go-Between In Conspiracy Case Given Five-
Year Jail Term

NEW YORK, April 11.—Mrs. Edgar J. Lauer, the 58-year-old wife of a state supreme court justice, was denounced today by Federal Judge Vincent Leibel as a woman of "insane vanity," and sentenced to three months in jail on her plea of guilty to smuggling and conspiracy.

She was fined $2,500 as well. Some two hours later, Albert N. Chaperau, the go-between in a series of smuggling adventures which had involved not only Mrs. Lauer but George Burns and Jack Benny, the comedians, was sentenced by another federal judge, Murray Hurlbert, to five years in prison and fined $5,000.

Benny and Burns had previously pleaded guilty and paid fines of $10,000 and $8,000, respectively. Chaperau was the actual carrier of the smuggled goods in each case.

Denies Appeal

Mrs. Lauer was directed to begin serving her sentence immediately, despite her lawyer's appeal that she first be permitted to spend a few days at home.

Mrs. Lauer was accompanied by a physician and a nurse when she appeared before Federal Judge Vincent Leibel. She leaned heavily on the arm of her husband as the little procession moved slowly into court.

The government asked a jail term for Mrs. Lauer because she was termed a second offender. In the fall of 1937, Justice Lauer set her for $10,400 claims against his wife for undeclared jewelry she brought into the United States.

Mrs. Lauer's appearance today followed charges that she had smuggled clothing into this country from Paris last year.

Mrs. Lauer was indicted on four counts, but only on the first count, that of conspiracy, did she receive a penalty. The court imposed a suspended sentence on three other counts and placed her on a year's probation.

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, April 11.—Repeal of life tenure for the adjutant general and his chief assistants and legislation reorganizing the state highway department executive personnel went before the senate today with passage virtually assured.

There was a possibility also that the senate might renew the fight over proposals to investigate reported subversive activities in the state, an issue that died last week when a resolution seeking the inquiry was withdrawn.

Repeals Democratic Law

Backed by the Republican administration, the adjutant general bill would repeal a law enacted by a Democratic legislature last year permitting the principal officers on the governor's military staff to serve until they reach retirement age.

Czechs, Slovaks Here Join
Move To Rebuild Republic

Martin Catlos Named Delegate to Slovak-American Congress In Chicago April 18, 19

Lending local support to a move to bring about the reconstruction of the Czechoslovak republic, Czechs and Slovaks of Salem today announced the selection of Martin Catlos as their delegate to the Slovak-American congress at Chicago, April 18 and 19.

Catlos was named at a meeting of a joint committee of three Slovaks and Czechs last night. The committee is composed of representatives of the Slovak Gymnastic Union, Sokal, branch 232; the Czech-Slovak Educational club and Lodge No. 2078, International Workers Order.

Pointing to the "illegal and shocking destruction of the Czechoslovak Republic at the hands of despoilers heading the third reich," spokesmen for the three organizations said "this is a direct challenge to every decent and patriotic Czech and Slovak in the world, as well as every nation cherishing democratic ideals."

They gave their solid support to the aims of the Czechoslovak National council of America, sponsor of the congress. The aims are:

(1) The cultivation and strengthening of the ideals of democracy between the Czechs and Slovaks residing in the United States, to the end that they will be useful citizens and defenders of all democratic institutions of the United States and—

(2) To re-establish the liberty of Czechs and Slovaks in Europe and bring about the reconstruction of the Czechoslovak Republic as an independent, democratic and unified state.

ROME, April 11.—The authoritative Fascist spokesman, Virginio Gayda, declared today that Italy would consider as a hostile act the use of a Greek port by the British navy.

His statement, in Il Giornale d'Italia, was made in a denial that the Italian army's occupation of Albania was a threat to the safety of Greece or meant an attempt to give territory in the Balkans.

It came as the Fascist press declared that Italian assurances to Greece of her safety from any Italian aggression were implied in an official announcement of the Athens government (and followed London reports, denied by the admiralty, that British warships were concentrating on the Greek island of Corfu).

Franco Keeps Army

A Turin newspaper, La Gazzetta del Popolo, reported meanwhile that Spanish Generalissimo Franco's army of one million men, "of whom half are Falangistas (Spanish Fascists)," would remain under arms another year. Nothing was said about withdrawal from Spain of Italian troops (whose presence on Spanish soil caused concern in London and Paris).

Newspapers cited a government statement broadcast in Greece yesterday which said Premier John Metaxas' regime was in position "to give the Greek people assurances that Greek independence and integrity are fully secured."

Italians added that they could only laugh at the suggestion that the Greek government meant Britain had guaranteed Greece's independence.

The Fascist press accused Britain and France of new plans to encircle the axis powers today and reports that the British might fortify the Greek island of Corfu.

Plan Improvement
On Lincoln Highway
Near East Canton

There is a strong possibility that improvement of Lincoln highway east of East Canton will be started this spring, George Montgomery of Youngstown, resident state highway engineer, announces.

Proposed widening and repaving of the road over a relocated route is listed as one of the major improvements contemplated by the state this year through application of state and federal highway funds. Condition of the section now being used is bad.

Montgomery said that plans for the improvement have been completed and are now in Columbus awaiting approval by the state and federal governments, and that most of the right-of-way has been acquired.

Truck, 2 Cars In Crash;
Three Vehicles Blaze
After Accident

A collision of a truck with two automobiles on Route 18, one and one-half miles east of North Jackson, at 10 p. m. Monday, put five persons in Youngstown South Side hospital. All three vehicles caught fire.

The injured include: Ray Rich 21, of Youngstown, driver of one car; suffering from broken left knee.

William F. Luton, 22, R. D. 5, Youngstown, driver of the other car; knee injury and forehead contusions.

Kathryn Kyle, 16, of North Jackson; fractures of both arms, left clavicle and possible broken nose.

Thelma Foster, 22, R. D. 2, Youngstown; bruises and numerous scratches.

Betty Foster, 18, her sister; possible broken ribs, laceration over left eye and numerous bruises and scratches.

State Patrolman James White explained that Rich and Luton were returning the girls in their machines from the Ellsworth High school where they had attended a band practice. Just east of North Jackson the men pulled their cars off the highway to a lane leading to the Kyle girl's home, and a truck, driven by Vester W. Lemmons, 28, of Cleveland, crashed into them.

Miss Kyle, who was alighting at the time, was thrown into a ditch. Betty Foster, riding in Rich's car, also was thrown out. The crash tore out about 100 feet of guard rail at that point. Rich's car caught fire and was destroyed as it hung over the guard rail. Luton's machine and the truck caught fire also but the flames were extinguished. The occupants scrambled to safety when the spilled gasoline ignited. The truck driver was reported uninjured.

Faces Grand Jury

LISBON, April 11.—Raymond Shields, 18, of Madison township, charged with the theft of an automobile from the Turk Motor Sales Co. at East Liverpool last Friday, was bound over to the grand jury by Justice M. K. Zimmerman here this morning. He was later freed after providing $500 bond.

He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Stacey and Duty, who recovered the car.

BRITISH FLEET

Maneuvers Apparently Intended to Reassure Balkan States

(By Associated Press)

LONDON, April 11.—Prime Minister Chamberlain today intensified his efforts to bring Soviet Russia into a European anti-aggression pact as reports reached London of mounting Rome-Berlin activity in Spain and the Balkans.

Ivan Maisky, Soviet ambassador, visited the foreign office this morning for a conference with Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax.

It was reported reliably that he had expressed the Soviet view that the British-Polish mutual aid pact was not enough to stop the axis powers, and to have discussed the possibility of a wide agreement which would include Roumania, Turkey, Greece and Bulgaria.

Fleet on Move

The diplomatic activity coincided with concentration of the British Mediterranean fleet, which was hastily mustered from scattered ports and steamed toward an undisclosed rendezvous in a show of power apparently intended to reassure the Balkans against any aggressive Rome-Berlin moves.

Admiralty officials denied that any British ships were near the Greek island of Corfu, off the Albanian coast, or in any other Greek waters. They said, however, that the Mediterranean fleet was concentrating at Malta, the closest British naval base to Corfu. Chamberlain was said to have warned Italy yesterday that seizure of Corfu would be a cause for war.

The battle cruiser Repulse, on cruise prior to being assigned to the special duty of taking King George and Queen Elizabeth to Canada next month, remained at Gibraltar, causing speculation that she was being held there to strengthen the Mediterranean fleet.

NORTH GEORGETOWN, April 11.—School classes have been suspended here for the week, as a precautionary measure, following the discovery of two light cases of what physicians termed "scarlet rash."

The 76 pupils of the North Georgetown school were dismissed for the week after two girls in the class became ill.

The victims, now reported improving, are Juliet Reichenbach, 9, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reichenbach, and Barbara Anderson, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson.

The school board and teachers decided it would be best to have school this week in order to curb any possible spread of the disease.

WIFE FINDS BODY
AN HOUR LATER

Well Known In District, Victim Had Operated
Garage 17 Years

Howard H. Cope, about 40, was killed instantly at 7 p. m. Monday when the bed of a dump truck fell on him while he was repairing the truck hoist at his garage in Middleton, two miles southeast of Columbiana.

Cope was found by his wife about an hour after the accident happened. He was pronounced dead by a doctor who was summoned immediately.

Accident Goes Unnoticed

Several men were in another part of the garage when the accident occurred, but none of them was aware of what had happened until Mrs. Cope discovered her husband's body.

The men said Cope had been leaning over the frame of the truck, working on the hoist while the bed was in a raised position.

Cope had owned and operated a garage in Middleton for the past 17 years. He was well-known in his community.

Born May 29, 1899, in Westmoreland county, Pa., he was the son of E. Lorin and Malinda E. Cope. He was a birthright member of the Society of Friends.

He was married on Oct. 20, 1921, to Josephine Laughlin, who survives, along with one daughter, Erma Irene; one son, Lorin Thomas; three brothers, Chester A. Cope of Salem, Arthur M. Cope of East Palestine and Ernest L. Cope of Columbiana; one sister, Mrs. Helen C. Price, of Winona, and his mother, Mrs. Malinda E. Cope, of Middleton.

Funeral Thursday

Funeral service will be held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday at the Warlick funeral home in Columbiana, in charge of Rev. C. L. Cope, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Toronto. Interment will be in the Friends burial grounds in Middleton.

Friends may call at the funeral home Wednesday afternoon and evening.

ACCEPT NO SUBSTITUTES

With former President Hoover and his secretary of state differing categorically over the way to keep this country out of trouble abroad, it becomes sharply evident that neutrality isn't a partisan issue.

Without exception, everybody interested in the question wants to avert a war in which the United States would be involved. They differ along the general lines of a classical division of opinion on the subject of combat.

There are those who believe the way to avoid trouble is to be belligerent about it—"methods stronger than words but short of war"—and those who are equally certain that the way to stay out of trouble is to keep as far away from it as possible, even to the extent of erecting legal No Trespassing signs for their own benefit.

In all probability, neither faction is wholly right; they disagree too pointedly on too many points. The way to keep the United States from getting into useless trouble is to have sound common sense at the head of a government consecrated to the ideal of peace.

There is no substitute for sense; there is no substitute for the universal desire for peace in the United States. If the people could be sure no substitutes were going to be foisted on them they could forget the neutrality problem. There are nations which manage to stay out of trouble without neutrality laws simply because their political leaders aren't tempted to try their hand at power politics.

INNOCENT FUN

It seems almost obligatory these days when Americans are engaged in innocent fun to boast that it's a sign they are still able to have a good time. Thus, a well known radio entertainer a few nights ago claimed proudly at the conclusion of a skit featuring the latest goofy dance craze—"Under The Spreading Chestnut Tree"—that it proved how happy and care-free we are.

Reappearance of this apologetic attitude toward fun is mildly disturbing. When fun requires an explanation, the omen isn't good. Fun is spontaneous, not deliberate. When it becomes deliberate it reflects a feeling of desperation, like the fun which so many Americans sought for themselves in the giddy years just after the World War.

Paris, existing under a cloud these days, is reported gayer on the surface than it has been for a long time. London, too, is said to be working overtime at the job of entertaining itself. "Under The Spreading Chestnut Tree" came here from London, in fact. It's permissible to be proud of the way Americans "have fun," but not so proud as to stir the suspicion we must be gay in self-defense and justify it by making invidious comparisons.

PAROCHIALISM

If there were more time to be saving free government at home instead of abroad, the conference in Chicago on interstate trade barriers would be recognized as an event of first magnitude.

The conference is tackling the spread of an illusion which has cursed civilizations throughout history—the illusion that parochialism in commerce bestows benefits.

It was one of the first aggravating problems solved by the Constitution of the United States, which expressly forbids restrictions on free exchange of goods.

The current depression, creating the commercial desperation on which parochialism thrives, has tempted the states again to knife one another for narrow economic advantage.

This tendency carried to its ultimate goal would restrict commerce and exchange to members of the same family, insofar as they could create an appearance of self-sufficiency. It is the domestic counterpart of economic nationalism, the diagnostic phrase which appears so often in descriptions of what's wrong with the world.

It's one of the oldest of man's mistakes in an inter-dependent world, one of the gravest threats to his well-being.

CHANGE

Marcus Aurelius in "Meditations" told husbands exactly how to take a woman's Easter ensemble in stride. "Observe always," he said, "that everything is the result of a change, and get used to thinking that there is nothing Nature loves so well as to change existing forms and to make new ones like them."

Nature has found a willing accomplice in fashion designers. Together, the designers and their sponsor have been entertaining humanity without interruption for a long time. Each new spring brings its changes, even though in retrospect they be only imitations of what has gone before.

Even men, sartorial stand-patters, are beginning to get the idea. Their hat brims are a trifle wider, and some of their new coats this Easter have a little slit in the back, like the one grandpa used to wear.

Congress is reported to be concerned with protecting whales. Our hope is that they fare better than they did with the protection of suckers.

It won't be the first time if Germany goosestepped into something.

Adolf Hitler wants a long peace, as he said in his Reichstag speech, in order to extend Germany's borders without fighting.

For Wednesday, April 12

AFFAIRS are likely to move at a lively and insistent pace, judging by the strong influence of Pluto, which moves with drastic force and brings unexpected results. Perhaps an unusual state of affairs may be definitely precipitated. Progress and good fortune are possible if the devastating or negative side of this planet is not permitted to bear rule. Other expansive and productive elements are at work, bringing happy and probably romantic adventures.

Those whose birthday it is may anticipate a year of activity accompanied by an upheaving force of deep significance. There are prospects of very expansive and happy personal experiences, bordering on the romantic and festive.

A child born on this day may be a progressive and determined character. It may have tendencies toward social or business reforms, with sympathy for the underprivileged. It may be romantic, genial and generous, reaching high popularity and prestige.

CANAL SUGGESTION

WASHINGTON, April 11.—A suggestion that congress consider authorizing this year at least a part of the Lake Erie-Ohio river waterway came today from Chairman Mansfield (D-Tex) of the house rivers and harbors committee.

In a letter to Representative Parsons (D-Ill.), published in the Congressional Record, Mansfield listed the projects on which army engineers have reported favorably and said "we should be able to pass on these projects promptly and report out a river and harbor bill without delay."

Referring to the canal to link the Ohio river and Lake Erie, Mansfield said:

"This project could be authorized as a whole, but a self-contained unit only can be authorized at greatly reduced cost, and such a unit will be an integral part of the complete project."

Mansfield apparently referred to the route from the Ohio river as far as Struthers, O., which congress authorized a few years ago subject to approval of the complete route by the army engineers. Since the army engineers submitted their report about six weeks ago, Mansfield expressed belief new authorization would be necessary for the canal.

"As usual," Mansfield said, "the railroads are opposing waterway improvements, and at this time have a particularly energetic and skillful group employed for this purpose. It is my opinion that railway officials are shortsighted in this matter. In the long run the various forms of transportation aid each other. This great country has been developed because of improvements in transportation facilities, and our waterways should not be permitted to fall behind in progress."

A hearing on the canal project, scheduled for today, has been postponed because of Mansfield's illness. His letter, dated April 7, said he expected to leave the hospital in a few days.

He also referred to a proposal to increase the height of the Allegheny river reservoir, one of the dams authorized for the protection of Pittsburgh. "It is now proposed," he said, "to raise the dam 10 feet to provide storage for pollution abatement."

Out of Reach of the Nazis

Hermann Leopoldi, formerly one of Austria's foremost composers of popular songs, is joyously greeted to New York by his daughter, Mrs. Erich Hoffman (left), and his wife. After Germany annexed Austria, Leopoldi was imprisoned for nine months at Dachau, the Nazis' most notorious concentration camp.

Common Cancer Questions
Answered By Clendening

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.
FROM 50,000 letters received by the American Society for the Control of Cancer, and by other public health writers and speakers, 76 questions have been found to be most frequently asked.

Here they are, with the most honest answers that modern medical science can make to them.

What is cancer? Cancer is a disorderly growth of cells of the patient's own tissues. This growth does not respond to the laws that

Dr. Clendening will answer questions of general interest only and then only through his column.

control activities of normal cells, it never ceases during the life of the individual, and the tissue so formed never functions as does the normal tissue in the same individual.

Many Causes

What causes cancer? There are many causes of cancer. The most common is some form of chronic or prolonged irritation. This irritation may be of several kinds—as chemical, thermal (heat), or mechanical, as friction. More than 45 chemicals are capable of producing cancer when introduced into laboratory animals. Constant friction of a mole or wart or of an old burn scar may produce cancer.

Is cancer a germ? There is no scientific evidence that cancer is caused by a germ.

Is cancer contagious or infectious? As cancer is not due to a germ, it is neither contagious nor infectious. There is no record in medical literature of a physician or nurse getting cancer from such patients despite most intimate contact with them.

Does the use of aluminum cooking vessels cause cancer? No.

Does electrical refrigeration cause cancer? No.

What is the relation of food to cancer? So far as known, no food or combination of foods has any influence on the cause of cancer.

Is there any disgrace in having cancer? No. There is no more disgrace in having cancer than in having a broken arm.

How does cancer spread through the body? In three ways. (1) Cancer cells grow through the walls of blood vessels and are carried by the blood stream to distant parts of the body. (2) They enter the lymphatic stream in a similar manner and are carried to nearby lymph glands. (3) The cancer cells grow directly from one tissue into another.

Not Single Disease

Is cancer a single disease? No. The term "cancer" includes all forms of malignant growth, very many varieties now being known. These have certain characteristics in common, such as uncontrolled growth, tendency to spread widely in the body and fatal termination if not treated early and adequately. They differ in certain characteristics, such as location in the body, microscopic appearance and response to treatment.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

D. P.: "Are halibut oil capsules as good as cod-liver oil for children and grown-ups?"

Answer—Yes.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Seven pamphlets by Dr. Clendening can now be obtained by sending 10 cents in coin, for each, and a self-addressed envelope stamped with a three-cent stamp, to Dr. Logan Clendening, 235 W. 45th St., New York City. The pamphlets are: "Three Weeks' Reducing Diet," "Indigestion and Constipation," "Reducing and Gaining," "Infant Feeding," "Instructions for the Treatment of Diabetes," "Feminine Hygiene" and "The Care of the Hair and Skin."

There's a Good Reason
You're Constipated!

When there's something wrong with you, the first rule is: get at the cause. If you are constipated, don't endure it first and cure it afterward. Find out what's giving you the trouble.

Chances are it's simple if you eat the super-refined foods most people do: meat, white bread, potatoes. It's likely you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It's a kind of food that isn't consumed by the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines and helps a bowel movement.

If this is your trouble, you should eat a natural "bulk" producing food—such as one as the crunchy, toasted, ready-to-eat cereal—Kellogg's All-Bran. All-Bran is the ounce of prevention that's worth a pound of emergency relief. Eat it every day, drink plenty of water, and "Join the Regulars." All-Bran is made by Kellogg's in Battle Creek.

KIT CARSON—Avenger!

by EVELYN WELLS

CHAPTER XXV

"The time, place, object and numbers considered, this expedition of Carson and Godey may be considered among the boldest and most disinterested which the annals of western adventure, so full of daring deeds, can present," wrote Fremont.

"Two men, in a savage desert, pursued day and night an unknown body of Indians into the defiles of an unknown mountain—attacked them on sight, without counting numbers—and defeated them in an instant, and for what?"

"To punish the robbers of the desert, and to avenge the wrongs of Mexicans they did not know."

Such praise Fremont wrote of his friend Carson, after riding "Sacramento," the horse Sutter had given him, east to the very banks of the Missouri.

Again Fremont and his lovely Jessie wrote his adventures and it was the Second Expedition that made famous the name of California. One Brigham Young, reading Fremont's story, set out with his Mormon colonists to Salt Lake.

Kit, heedless of his growing fame, was in Taos and it seemed adventuring was ended. But a promise haunted him.

"If I ride again, Kit Carson?" Fremont had asked as they parted. Fremont had smiled at the torn look in Kit's honest eyes.

"If you need me again, Kit had said slowly, "I will ride with you."

During the months of happiness that followed Kit tried to forget that promise. Now in the spring of '45 he bought a farm on the Cimarron some fifty miles from Taos. With Indian labor he built on it an adobe to shelter Josefa and the family Kit hoped for. Past it small waterways raced over the desert to the Rio Grande.

Richard Owens, the trapper, joined Kit in his farming enterprise. They bought crude farming instruments, and Mexican carts with creaking wooden wheels, and mules and horses. Peacefully the ex-adventurers sorted red and purple corn for seeding and planted wheat and pumpkin seed and apple seedlings.

Between arduous tasks there was merriment to be had in Taos, and Kit with his child-wife of "heart-breaking beauty" were often to be found at the fandangoes, or—for all were equal in Taos—shuffling through the rhythmic monotony of Indian dances at the native festivals.

Taos had warmed Kit's boyhood. More and more he became part of it. Closer grew the bond between Kit Carson and his Josefa.

She wept when their first child, a son, was born and did not live. "You will never leave me again? Never, Kit?"

His face was tortured.

He said: "Only for Fremont. I pray he will never ask me."

Then in 1845, as the wheat Kit had planted ripened for the Indian reapers, the dreaded message came. An Indian rode to Kit's door. Dick Owens read the message.

"My friend, I am returning to California. Where will you join me?"

And this message—for Fremont, in recognition of his two expeditions, had been made First Lieutenant then Captain—was signed portentously, "Captain Fremont."

This meant sacrifice such as Kit had never made before.

"We have our house, our farm," wept Josefa. "Always it is Fremont. Do you love him more than me?"

Kit sighed, and could not make her understand. Hurriedly, at half their purchase price, Kit and Owens sold the farm and prepared to join Fremont. Again Josefa found shelter with the Bents in Taos. And if she wept and pouted, no wife could blame her.

Kit had said he never wished to see California again. He told Sutter that upon leaving California in 1844. And now in December, 1845, one year later, he was glad to be riding again into California beside Fremont. Again, after hardship and privation, living on mule meat, going without water in the desert, fighting with Indians in the Sierra Nevada, the Fremont men were made welcome at Sutter's Fort, and Fremont's iron-gray stallion Sacramento whinnied, seeing his old home.

Again Sutter opened his bastioned fort and his heart to them. But his words were ominous.

"Will there be trouble, Fremont?"

"Who knows what to expect from Mexico? General Taylor has gone to the Rio Grande to check any Mexican army that may attempt to cross. There are plans to annex Texas. There may be war...."

"Yet you dared come into Mexican California?"

"I am here, answered Fremont proudly. For with him in California were sixty mountaineers trained in western warfare, each worth ten average men in a fight. Kit Carson alone, Fremont thought, was worth an army of Mexicans. Sutter rubbed his bald head nervously.

"You may not be safe in California, Fremont."

Sutter was right. Eventually an order came from the Mexican authorities at Monterey:

"Fremont and all his men are ordered to leave California—and by the quickest route." Fremont, his dark cheeks flaming, read that order in his camp on the Salinas river where he had marched with his company after leaving Sutter's Fort. The order stung the proud Southern officer.

He wheeled on the bearer of the message: Lieutenant Chavez, of the Mexican Army of California.

"Tell your General Castro," he stormed, "that I refuse to comply with such an order, insulting to my government and to me!"

With these words Fremont, the Madrilenos who fled Madrid for the mountains when the Spanish capital was a place of terror and death with the city under siege by General Franco, smile happily as they return to their homes, many of which were found in ruins. They bring back with them the few belongings they were able to take along when they fled.

"Fremont is young, and has the impulsiveness of young men," Jolk had said after their meeting.

But the Military Committee heads had mapped, in secret conference, the proposed route to be followed by Fremont. He had been sent west to route the Sierra in California and the Cascades in Oregon, and to map proposed emigration routes to the Pacific.

Now, thousands of miles from Washington and the protection of American law, Fremont was encamped on Gavilan, in a California that belonged to Mexico, awaiting the attack of Castro's army.

A messenger crept up the hill by night, sent by Larkin, the American Consul at Monterey. Larkin pleaded with Fremont to leave the Gavilan, to leave California. Larkin's position, he said, and that of all Americans in California, was imperiled by Fremont's rash defiance.

Fremont hastily scribbled an answer with lead pencil on a scrap of paper:

"I am making myself as strong as possible in the intention that if we are unjustly attacked we will fight to extremity and refuse quarter, trusting to our country to avenge our death...."

"And if we are hemmed in and assaulted here, we will die, every man of us, under the flag of our country!"

Why These Curtains Stay Beautiful

Woven curtains are a mere loose braiding of threads that slip at the slightest pull (see above left) and lose their shape in washing.

But genuine Quaker Net is a three-thread construction with each mesh tied in place, so threads can't slip (see above right).

That is why

QUAKER CURTAINS

keep their beauty through many seasons of wear and washing.

Friends Services

Thursday services at the Friends church will be held at 9:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. In the absence of Rev. A. N. Henry, pastor, who is attending the Friends pastor's convention in Cleveland, Emerson Cobbs will have charge of the morning service, Thursday, and Herbert Whitaker will lead the evening prayer meeting.

The meeting of the Missionary auxiliary, announced for Wednesday with Mrs. C. A. Ellett, has been postponed until May 2 owing to the death of Mrs. William McDaniel.

Rev. Henry preached Sunday morning the sixth and last of a series of sermons on Christian Evidence. The subject Sunday morning was, "The Keystone of Evidence." A quartet, composed of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cosand, Mrs. Margaret Chambers and Earl Santee sang two numbers.

The Easter Missionary offering amounted to $138.40.

Rev. Henry preached Sunday evening on "Unused Spices." Curtis Chambers and Wendell Santee played an instrumental duet accompanied by Miss Marjorie Santee at the piano.

Virgil Cobbs led the Christian Endeavor service. The subject was "Reasons for Believing We Will Live Again." Curtis Chambers and Wendell Santee played an instrumental duet accompanied by Miss Marjorie Santee at the piano.

An Easter egg hunt was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Mercer Sunday. The event was in honor of the birthday of William Mercer Jr. of Sebring, the 28th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Mercer Sr. and Mrs. Mercer's birthday. Relatives were present from Bluffton, Alliance, Salem, Sebring, Beloit and Berlin Center. A moving picture of the egg hunt was taken by Paul White of Alliance.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, April 11. — Wheat prices were slightly lower at the opening today. Selling was based partly on the government's estimate of probable winter wheat production which was 10,000,000 bushels larger than the average of recent unofficial forecasts. Failure of Liverpool prices to advance as a result of political developments during the four-day holiday in that market also induced some selling here.
Chicago wheat started ¼-½ lower, May 68½-¼, July 67½-¾, but then recovered all the loss. Corn started ¼-½ down, May 47½-½, July 49¼-½.

Negro Gunman Shot, Killed by Officers

ZANESVILLE, April 11.—A squad of Zanesville patrolmen shot and killed a 23-year-old Negro last night in a gun battle which followed the slaying of Erwin Tate, only Negro member of the force, as he sought to make an arrest at a street corner.
Police Lieut. Fred Quigley identified Tate's slayer as Hubert Pruett of Coshocton, charged with assault in a warrant sworn out by the wife.
Quigley said Pruett shot Tate in the chest as he and Patrolman Percy Dilcher sought to serve the warrant. Dilcher wounded the fleeing Pruett, who later was trapped under a truck by hastily summoned officers.
When the wounded man opened fire, the lieutenant reported, he was cut down by a volley from his partners' guns.

CHANGE IN COST SYSTEM URGED

Examiners Suggest Dif- ferent Proportion In Home Expense

The state examiners' report of an audit, covering the period from January, 1937, to July, 1938, has been filed with Supt. R. D. George of the Fairmount Children's home, near Alliance.
Chief recommendation made to the trustees by the examiners was for a closer adjustment of the proportion of costs carried by the two supporting counties, Columbiana and Stark.
The examiners found that during the 18-month period, $7,415 per cent of the children in Fairmount were from Stark county and 42.585 per cent were from Columbiana. He suggested that the costs of the home should have been borne in this ratio instead of in the permanent division by which Stark has contributed 60 per cent and Columbiana 40.

Stark Gives More
For the period in question, this would mean that Stark county contributed $4,658.64 more than her share. However, George reported that during other short periods the Fairmount enrollment has been out of balance in the opposite direction. Over the years the 60-40 proportion has proved fair to both counties almost down to the dollar, he said.
Two minor criticisms of board expenditures were made. The examiner objected to payment of $25 per year for membership in the Child Welfare league and to expenditure of $20 for providing bus transportation between Canton and the home last year for state welfare department delegates.
Supt. and Mrs. George were commended for their administration of the home and their efforts in behalf of the children.

Lists Architect's Fees
Although the expenditure had not been made by the trustees, the examiner included in his report a statement of money spent for fees of architects who drew plans for the proposed new school and grounds at Fairmount.
The report showed that county commissioners paid H. C. Frank of Canton $3,750 for his work in preparing the plans for the building and that Proctor Noyes of Canton received $600 for designing a 40-000 landscaping project in connection with the school construction.
The new school has been in demand for many months but commissioners of the two counties have been unable to get a WPA or PWA appropriation and two attempts to raise the Columbiana county share have been defeated at the polls.
Stark county's share of the building, though not expended, was included in the 1938 county budget but was dropped when the 1939 appropriation schedule was drawn up.
As a result, the Stark commissioners' appropriation to Fairmount is only $55,000 this year as compared to $125,360 in 1938.

Carry Reserve Fund
Although Stark commissioners have placed $35,000 in the Fairmount home fund, the limit which can be spent from this county is $45,000. The Columbiana appropriation is $30,000 and that figure must represent 40 per cent of the home's cost, making Stark county's 60 per cent contribution come to $45,000.
The remaining $10,000 from Stark county is carried from year to year as a reserve fund for additional children and other exigencies, Supt.
George said.

George announced the resignation of John H. Klinge of Massillon as a trustee of the home. Reorganization of the board was postponed.

Speed Search for New O.S.U. Leader
COLUMBUS, April 11.—Ohio State university trustees started on a new track today in an effort to speed their search for a successor to Dr. George W. Rightmire, who retired as president of the school July 1.

Board members agreed at their April session yesterday to select three to six names each from a list of 100 prospects and submit them at their May 8 meeting in an effort to narrow the field of presidential candidates.
Bargains are plentiful. The ads.

Theatre Attractions

Billy Lee, Mary Boland, Charlie Ruggles, and Donald O'Connor in a scene from the comedy, "Boy Trouble," showing at the State Wednesday only.

Following the last showings tonight of Deanna Durbin's hit comedy, "Three Smart Girls Grow Up," the State will feature a comedy,
"Boy Trouble," with Mary Boland and Charlie Ruggles in the leading roles. The picture will be seen Wednesday only.
Ruggles, cast as the type of character his fans like best, plays the "little man," the underpaid and overworked department store clerk, whose feuds with his overlords downstreet go hand in hand with his rows at home. Miss Boland, as an engagingly nit-witted as ever, is his eccentric wife, who turns to adopting children when all other means of placating him fail.

Opposite Effect
But the children have quite the opposite effect from what Miss Boland expects. Ruggles determines to get rid of the first of them immediately and on his way back to the orphanage picks up another waif as the result of an automobile accident. Feeling that matters cannot be worse, he returns home with both boys!
It is in the domestic scenes between Ruggles and Miss Boland on the one side and the two obstreper-ous youngsters on the other that the real home touch of the picture comes in.

Good Double At Grand
An exceptionally good double bill will be the Grand theater's Wednesday attraction.
Warren William, as the light-fingered Lone Wolf, heads the cast of the first picture on the program,
"The Lone Wolf Spy Hunt," in which Ida Lupino is the feminine lead.

The new film, set amid the gaiety of Washington night life, is a timely tale of dangerous international spies who attempt to enmesh the most debonair rogue of all fiction in their sinister activities.

William, naturally suave and adroit, is said to be the most brilliant Lone Wolf in the long cinema history of the beloved character.
Miss Lupino is the daughter of a United States senator in this comedy drama. Her hectic pursuit of the Lone Wolf, and the swift-moving intrigue of Washington spies, results in a breath-taking melange of romance, mystery and adventure.

"Storm Over Bengal," second half of the bill, is a drama of the hill country of India and of the eternal strife and "sniper" warfare that goes on between the Lancers and the hill tribesmen.
It relates the story of two brothers, members of the lancers, who become estranged when they both fall in love with the same girl. How they are brought back together by their loyalty to their country and a supreme sacrifice on the part of one, makes for dramatic entertainment of the first order.

Patric Knowles, Richard Cromwell, Rochelle Hudson, Douglas Dumbrille, Colin Tapley, John Burton, Clyde Cook and Claude Allister portray the featured roles.

College Football Makes Inroads Into Spring Sports Field

SPRING DRILLS NECESSARY TO GRIDIRON TEAM

Coaches Say Modern Football Can't Be Taught In Short Time

BY DREW MIDDLETON
NEW YORK, April 11.—Any lingering idea that football is a fall sport will be dissipated by a visit to any of the more advanced football founts. The big shoulder guys are at it hot and heavy and the atmosphere is the real McCoy, games everywhere.

Practice games with other colleges have become a recognized part of the spring athletic program. Once coaches merely subjected their meat tickets to bruising but unproductive intra-squad scrimmages. Nowadays it isn't surprising to see a team travel 200 miles or so for a "practice" game, played before a respectable crowd with cheerleaders and all the fixings.

It's all very easy to explain. A coach says: "We have to do it. Modern football is so complex it can't be taught in a short time. Proper timing and play execution can't be perfected unless we have long spring drills and scrimmage under game conditions. Squads are so large it takes more time to choose the players."

Help Enthusiasm
Graduate managers always alive to publicity, think the games need to be played for the fall season. Coaches like to play outside opposition for three reasons: (1) It gives the squad an incentive; (2) their own second-stringers use intra-squad games as thoroughly familiar with the first team formations; (3) freshmen, who may make the team as sophomores in the fall, get a chance to show their stuff or lack of it in touch competition.

While here and there an educator has raised his hands in horror at spring football's growth, the only real opposition of any strength is in the "ivy league" of the east. But with teams like Michigan, Stanford, Army and Navy on Ivy schedules, there seems little chance the opposition will amount to much.

You do not, however, hear any echoing cheers from the spring sports coaches. Instead, you hear, "yep, young Smith would make a fine second baseman—or quarter miler or stroke oar—but he's a fine quarterback too."

One of the more philosophical master-minds was easier. "We can't kick," he said. "Football pays the bills for us."

CHICAGO TEAM TAKES FOURTH

Windy City Keglers Had Chance to Cop Lead In A. B. C. Event

CLEVELAND, April 11.—The final stretch grid brought the powerful Monarch Beers of Chicago 961 pins and fourth place in the American Bowling Congress team event last night—just 38 strikes more and they would have grabbed the lead.

The Monarchs got away to a 978 start, then thundered out a mighty 1,069 middle game. They needed a 999 nightcap to displace the Old Reading Beers of Hazelton, Pa., the currently leading quintet with 3,045.

But, among other factors, Anchorman Bill Lenzen ran into three splits, the last in the tenth frame, and the Monarchs wound up fourth with a 3,008. Bill Flesch, rangy leadoff man, set a blistering pace with a 673 count.

The Chicagoans thus showed the Fisher Hotels of Frankmuth, Mich., out of the select "top five" bracket, their 2,996 entitling them to sixth position.

MOOSE KEGLERS IN TOURNAMENT

Salem Team to Compete In National Tourney At Aurora, Ill.

A bowling team representing Salem lodge No. 571, Loyal Order of Moose, will compete Saturday and Sunday in the fourth annual Moose national bowling tournament at the Sylvanfield alleys in Aurora, Ill.

The Salem team is composed of George Harroff, captain; Mike Hutter, Bob Tubbs, John Carpenter, Virgil Willis, Rex Reich, Henry Derenzo and George McConner. Accompanying the bowlers to Aurora will be Albert Guy, dictator of the local lodge, and Gus Bonfert.

They will make the trip in two automobiles, stopping off at Mooseheart, Ill., to visit the Mooseheart home for orphans. The home is located five miles from Aurora.

The Salem keggers will compete in the five-man event at 8 p. m. Saturday. They are scheduled for doubles and singles competition at 11 a. m. and 12 noon Sunday.

A total of 220 teams are entered in the tournament, which runs five consecutive weekends.

PRETORIA, South Africa—Wicket keeper and opening batsman for the first eleven of the Pretoria Boys' High school is 16-year-old Rheinalt T. Hofmeyr, a youth with only one leg.

BOWLING RESULTS

First and second place teams took it on the chin in the American league at the Masonic temple alleys last night as the Reich Sports took two out of three games from the leading Mullins Foremen and Demings posted two wins in three heats with the second-place Ohio Edison.

As a result of these two matches, Mullins and the Ohio Edison remained three games apart in the championship race. The Foreman need only one victory next week to sew up the 1938-39 title of the American league.

Other matches gave the Electric Furnace two wins over the Masons and Fernengel's Colts three victories over the Carroll Club.

The Altohuse Motors gained a step in their bid for first place in the Quaker City league by taking three games from the Assorted Strikes at the Grate Recreation alleys last night.

While the second-place Motors were winning three games, the leading Harris Garage was being held to two wins by Calladine's Service.

The Economy V-8's clung to third position by chalking up two victories in three games with the Trades Class. In other matches, Flooding & Reynard won two out of three games from the Hotel Lape. Burt C. Capel Realtors took two out of three heats with Coy Buicks and the Golden Eagle won three games over the Salem Motor.

A special match at the Grate alleys saw Loudon V-8's of the Pastime league defeat Meissner's Service of the Federal league, 2422 to 2302. Paul Loudon was high for the winners with 522.

LEGAL NOTICE

LEGAL NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
 Bids for Installation of Furniture, Furnishings and Equipment at Salem High School, Salem, Ohio.

Sealed proposals for the furnishing and installation of furniture, furnishings, and equipment to the Salem High School, will be received by the Board of Education, Salem, Ohio, at the office of the said Board of Education in the present high school building until 12:00 o'clock noon, Eastern Standard Time, on Wednesday, the 18th day of April, 1939, and at that time and place will be publicly opened and read aloud. The proposed work consists of performing all labor and furnishing all necessary materials, tools and appliances, etc., for the installation of furniture, furnishings, and equipment in accordance with specifications prepared by Kling and Canfield, Registered Architects, 100 E. Hyden Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, for the said Board of Education.

Copies of the plans and contract documents are on file in the office of the Board of Education where they are accompanied by a satisfactory bond in the amount of not less than 10% of the base bid plus the highest alternate bid, drawn in favor of the Board of Education. The bonds shall be accompanied by proof of authority of the official or agent signing the bond, together with a recent financial statement of the surety company.

The proposal bond or certified check submitted with a bid will be held as a guarantee that if the proposal is accepted, a contract will be entered into. Proposals will be returned, also certified checks, to all bidders after the contract has been entered into and secured by a performance bond of 100% of the amount of the contract, with a satisfactory surety for the faithful performance of the work.

Attention is called to the special Construction Regulations which are included in the proposed contract documents, and to the special requirements for procurement of labor, wage rates, and hours of employment. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of 90 days after receipt of his bid. Particular attention is called to the statutory requirements of the State of Ohio relative to licensing of corporations organized under the laws of any other State.

BRITISH FLEET ON THE MOVE usual activity along the Polish-German frontier and of increased Italian troop concentrations along the Albanian-Greek border.

Meanwhile, the British foreign office drafted for the prime minister a declaration of protection for Greece and Turkey as an aftermath of Italy's seizure of Albania.

Accepts Pact

Preparations to include these two countries in the "Stop Hitler" bloc were formulated as it was reported in London that Roumania, through her foreign minister, Grigore Gafencu, had accepted a British offer of a mutual Anglo-Roumanian defense pact similar to the one concluded between Britain and Poland last week.

The tension that has seized Europe was symbolized in two other widely separated quarters — the Netherlands and Britain's vital Mediterranean base, the island of Malta.

Queen Wilhelmina decreed that border battalions take up arms as a precautionary measure because, as an official statement expressed it, "the actual international situation contains war danger." The call was effective yesterday.

At Malta, gun-bristling island only 55 miles from the southern shores of Italian Sicily, gas masks were distributed to civilians and a few Americans residing there were advised to leave. The families of many British navy and army officers left for England. Diplomatic circles believed that a show of British naval power off Corfu would have the psychological effect of "warning off" Premier Mussolini from any attempt on the island.

Two Miles From Albania

Corfu, 40 miles long and 20 miles wide at the broadest point, lies off the Albanian-Greek Adriatic border, only two miles from the shores of Albania which Italy absorbed in her Good Friday invasion.

Corfu is in strategic position to control entrance to the Adriatic, lying just across the Strait of

Complete Span

LISBON, April 11 — The new bridge constructed on the Middle-ton-New Waterford road by Contractor Earl H. Newell of Columbia, under plans and specifications drawn up by County Engineer Charles Snyder, has been completed and thrown open to traffic.

The contract was let by the county commissioners on February 6, to Newell on his bid of $1,508.18 for the removing of the old bridge and the construction of a new concrete structure.

Otranto from the heel tip of the Italian "boot."

The presence of the fleet in the eastern Mediterranean, British leaders hoped, also might offset pressure by Rome and Berlin to keep Balkan states out of the British-French "anti-aggression" front.

Teachers to Meet

LISBON, April 11.—County Superintendent of Schools W. E. Roberts today announced a meeting of the teachers of the Beaver Rural school district which will be held in Elkton Thursday evening.

A panel discussion of music will be led by Supervisor George Bretz, stressing conception, sociology, psychology and methods of teaching public school music.

ADDED RELIEF FUNDS NEEDED

400,000 May Lose Jobs On WPA If Full Appropriation Is Not Made

WASHINGTON, April 11.—President Roosevelt said in a letter to Senator Pepper (D. Fla.) today it was a matter of arithmetic that between 300,000 and 400,000 work relief jobs would be eliminated if congress appropriated only $100,000,000 for the WPA.

Mr. Roosevelt originally asked for a $150,000,000 appropriation. The house voted $100,000,000, and Pepper has been leading a senate fight for the full appropriation.

Pepper had inquired as to the President's views on the reduction. "In reply to your inquiry," Mr. Roosevelt wrote, "I think there is nothing for me to add or to subtract from what I have made clear on so many occasions since last January."

"The sole question of continuing relief to July 1 is one of arithmetic."

"If one hundred million dollars is voted, between three and four hundred thousand fewer people can be given work relief than if one hundred fifty million dollars is voted—and in addition practically none of the seven or eight hundred thousand people on the waiting list can be given employment."

"It seems to me that is long and short of it."

Senator's Son Weds

NEW PHILADELPHIA, April 11.—Edward Kendall Wheeler, son of Sen. Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, and Miss Charlotte Dean Sharp of New Philadelphia, plan to be married Saturday in the First Presbyterian church here, it was announced today.

SENATE O. K. ON 'RIPPERS' SEEN

Plan to Renew "Red" Probe Also Looming In Legislature

Quartermaster Gen. John A. Blount, all appointed by former Gov. Martin L. Davey, would be subject to removal on enactment of the measure, already passed by the house.

The highway reorganization would reduce sharply the executive personnel of the state's largest department by cutting the number of supervisory districts and divisions.

Although the measure grants increases for some of the remaining executive posts, Highway Director Robert S. Beighler asserted its measure would mean economies of $185,000 annually in salaries.

The bill was amended last night to permit the director to merge two or more counties in the same maintenance district and also to place either a professional engineer or a superintendent in charge of each district.

"Red" Move Revived

Patriotic organizations seeking an inquiry into asserted un-American activities were reported to have renewed their drive for a senate investigation.

Many senators said they received letters urging them to support an investigation resolution to be introduced today.

Sen. H. T. Phillips (R. Athens), a chief supporter of previous efforts to obtain a senate investigation, said last night he would decide today on offering such a resolution but declined to discuss it further.

An investigation resolution was once adopted by the senate, its approval rescinded the next day, then was sent to committee for preliminary inquiry and was finally withdrawn by Sen. R. A. Pollock (R. Stark), its author.

The senate committee on economy in state government recommended passage of a house-approved bill setting up a commission to study state office space needs.

Act On Insurance

The house completed legislative action on measures permitting issuance of notes against delinquent tax collections for poor relief deficits and to give the insurance department closer control over bond investment companies which sell annuity contracts to Ohioans.

The house also adopted a resolution felicitating Archbishop Joseph Schrembs of Cleveland on his elevation in the Catholic hierarchy.

The lower chamber plans Friday morning sessions, abandoning the usual Thursday weekend recesses, and a general speeding up of activities. Speaker William McCulloch said, in an effort to wind up working sessions by the last of April.

Barring a conflict over poor relief, McCulloch predicted administration reorganization measures would be disposed of promptly and a vote in the house taken on the biennial appropriation bill the latter part of next week. He looked for a senate vote on appropriations legislation the following week.

The speed-up, he said, would carry out a previously formed plan for adjournment by May 10, after printers caught up with last minute legislation.

Liverpool Tightens "Numbers" Activity

EAST LIVERPOOL, April 11.—Ohio Valley lottery rackets began writing stock market "numbers" on the "cuff" today, after two agents forfeited bonds of $100 each in Mayor Lee Copenhaver's drive against gambling operations here.

Denzil Chamberlain and Clement Lambert, arrested when police started an anti-racket campaign, failed to appear to answer charges of illegally possessing lottery slips, municipal court officials said.

Lottery books, evidence on which arrests are made, vanished when police "put on the heat" under Copenhaver's orders to clean up. Numbers were sold but no duplicate receipts were issued. Purchasers deplored upon the honesty of the "writer" to turn in the slip to the payoff office.

Racketeers said there has been no letup in operations, but agents were instructed to be "careful to whom they sold."

Attorney General Names Imhoff Aid

Lawrence E. Imhoff, of St. Clairsville, former congressman from the 18th district, which includes Columbiana, Jefferson, Belmont, Harrison and Carroll counties, has been appointed an assistant attorney general in the department of justice at Washington, friends here have been advised.

Imhoff, who served three terms as Democratic congressman, was defeated in the November election by a fellow townsman, Earl R. Lewis, Republican.

Rural Really Lives Up to Reputation

RURAL—This Clermont county hamlet lives up to its name. Once it had a number of intersecting streets, a sizable assortment of houses, shops, a tobacco warehouse and postoffice. One of the earliest ferries on the Ohio river was operated here for years after 1794.

Today Rural is an unmarked "wide spot in the road"—with four homes.

Quarry Projects Ordered Reopened

LISBON, April 11.—The four rock quarry projects, operated in the county in connection with the county-wide WPA road improvement job, were re-opened today following a conference of officials here yesterday.

In line with a state reduction, 521 men, working at the quarries, were dropped last Friday. The men went back to work for the remainder of the week, at least, pending arrangements for a new work schedule.

The quarry jobs include the one operated at Salem where 50 men are employed, another in West township where 68 are working, the Rock Camp job where 355 men are working and the fourth in Washington township where 48 men are employed.

Attending yesterday's conference were Lee Whitright of Akron, assistant district regional WPA supervisor; George Weinberg, county project engineer; Charles O. Snyder, county engineer; Mayor Lee Copenhaver of East Liverpool; James Bowers, Columbiana village engineer; Solicitor W. O. Wallace of Columbiana village and Atty Guy Mauro of Leetonia.

Arrange Funeral For Judge Powell

EAST LIVERPOOL, April 11.—Funeral services will be held in Steubenville at 2 p. m. Wednesday for Earl Powell, aged 50, Steubenville's municipal judge and former East Liverpool resident, who died of a heart attack Saturday night.

Powell, East Liverpool High graduate, World war veteran, and former professional basketball and baseball player in East Liverpool, Pittsburgh and New London, Conn., was elected judge at Steubenville in November, 1937. He was admitted to the bar after retiring from professional athletics.

Powell was born here, a son of the late C. W. Powell, for many years a justice of the peace. He leaves his mother and two brothers, "Big Bill" Powell, former Pittsburgh Pirate pitcher, and Otto Powell of Los Angeles, and his wife, Virginia Leary Powell, formerly of nearby Chester, W. Va.

Just Pals

OGDEN, Utah.—Five officers arrived in three patrol cars when a woman reported to police a man was robbing a service station attendant.

"Escape," observed Chief Dewey Hawkins, "would have been impossible."

It turned out, however, the "hold-upman" was just a friend showing the attendant a new gun.

ITALIANS DENY GRECIAN THREAT

Also Take Occasion To Toss Warning or Two Toward Britain

big democracies, Il Messaggero said in commenting on London newspaper reports that British Prime Minister Chamberlain would offer Greece and Turkey pacts guaranteeing their protection.

"Only An Excuse"
Declaring Italy's occupation of Albania was only an excuse to hasten the plan, Il Messaggero said Britain's guarantee to Greece would include the provision for a British naval base at Corfu.

Il Popolo Di Roma said the scheme to encircle Germany with anti-aggression alliances having failed, the democracies hoped the "Albanian episode" will be a good excuse to revive it on a larger scale against the reprobates of the axis.

Some foreign observers regarded such comment as a confirmation of their belief that Italy had occupied Albania as a warning to Greece against letting Britain establish a naval base on the key island of Corfu. There Britain could largely dominate the Strait of Otranto connecting the Mediterranean with the Adriatic.

Meanwhile, with authoritative reports showing Italy has nearly 1,000,000 men under arms scattered from Spain to Libya and the Dodecanese islands in the eastern Mediterranean, Premier Mussolini's Il Popolo D'Italia at Milan declared the total of Italian soldiers participating in the Albanian campaign was 32,000.

The strength of the Albanian army, according to the latest available reports, was 14,117, with not enough arms to go around.

DEATHS

RALDA S. EYSTER
DAMASCUS, April 11.—Ralda S. Eyster, 70, of Goshen township, died at 3:40 p. m. Monday at his home between here and Berlin Center following three months' illness of a heart ailment.

Born in Millville Feb. 4, 1869, he had lived in this vicinity all his life. He was a member of the Bunker Hill M. E. church and a member of the official board of the church. He was preceded in death by one daughter, Mrs. Mary Burton.

He leaves his wife, Lola M., a granddaughter, Lois Ann Burton, and one sister, Mrs. Bertha Cobbs of Salem.

Funeral service will be held at 2:30 p. m. Thursday at the Bunker Hill church, in charge of Rev. R. J. Smith, pastor. Burial will be in Bunker Hill cemetery.

Friends may call at the home Wednesday afternoon and evening.

MISS ALICE MONTGOMERY

Miss Alice Montgomery, aged about 76, a former Salem resident, died at 1 p. m. Monday in Canton at the home of her niece, Miss Maude Grovemiller, where she resided, friends were advised.

Miss Montgomery lived here about 40 years ago and for many years was a stenographer. She was a member of the Baptist church.

The funeral service will be held at the Spiker parlors in Canton at 3:30 p. m. Thursday. Burial will be in Canton.

Veteran Succumbs

DAYTON, April 11.—William J. Hemsteger, 70, known as the oldest member of the Motion Picture Operators' union and the operator of the first moving picture projector in southern Ohio, died last night. At the 1915 Panama Pacific exposition in San Francisco, he presented a mechanical working model of Dayton's 1913 flood.
